

Letter from the Bulletin Editor

Dear Reader,

Welcome to the June 2012 issue of the Bulletin of the EATCS.

I have some news to report. Starting from next issue, Edgar Chávez will be in charge of informing us on the novelties from Latin America. Chapter of the EATCS. I want to thank Edgar Chávez for accepting to take care of this section and express my gratitude to Alfredo Viola for their great contribution and for the effort devoted to the Bulletin for so many years. My warmest thanks to you.

Regarding the present issue, apart from the interesting Columns contributions, our reporters bring you news on EATCS and TCS activities all over the world. Please, read them carefully!

I trust that you will find a lot of interesting material to read in this issue.
